Spring Term 2011

Meet at the Pub

The Crown, Stoke-by Nayland

Wednesday 12th January 7.30pm

The Crown at Nayland will be well known to many of you as a great pub and, situated on the Essex/Suffolk border, we thought it would be a perfect place for those who live in the area to get together for a drink and perhaps a bite to eat. Please feel welcome to drop in at any time from 7.30pm and take the opportunity to meet other parents and friends of the College. For more information and to prepare The Crown for approximate numbers please contact either Amanda on ajt@framcollege.co.uk or Committee Member, Rosie Hunter, on curtainhunters@mac.com

A pay as you go evening

Confessions of an Intellectual Property Barrister

Headmaster Porter Theatre

Henry Carr QC

Friday 28th January 7.30pm

Henry Carr, a hugely entertaining fellow, practises at the intellectual property bar and appears in cases concerning patents, copyright designs and trademarks. Henry's light-hearted talk will appeal to those with an interest in practising law and to non-lawyers alike. He will share his experiences of his involvement in a wide range of cases which include Catherine Zeta Jones against Hello magazine, Levi Strauss against Tesco and L'Oreal against eBay to name but a few. The talk will last for approximately one hour. If you would like to join us for what promises to be a fascinating evening, please contact Amanda on ajt@framcollege.co.uk College students will also be invited to attend this event.

Non-Members £7.00

SupperSoc

The Anchor, Walberswick

Friday 4th February 7.30pm

Join us for a delicious evening of modern Catalonian food accompanied by wines, kindly provided by our hosts Mark and Sophie Dorber, from Spain's new wave wine, Conquistadores. The meal will feature the latest vintage cold pressed virgin olive oil from Tarragona delivered in December by Norfolk evacuee Martin Kirby, author of No Going Back; a tale of his pursuit of the 'good life'. There will be anchovies from Collioure, top notch Serrano Ham, speciality chorizo and olives, 'chipirones' and gamba a la plancha followed by something rich and slow cooked....but probably not goat! To conclude; Crème Catalana with plums stewed in PX. The Anchor has 4 double/twin rooms that can be booked for the 4th February only by calling Mark or Sophie direct on 01502 722112 and quoting FramSoc. Numbers are limited to 55 for this evening and to avoid disappointment please contact Amanda on ajt@framcollege.co.uk at your earliest convenience.

FramSoc members only

£25.00 per head - Cheques, payable to Framlingham College, should be sent in advance to Amanda c/o Framlingham College.

Great British Paintings

Headmaster Porter Theatre

John Sheeran

Thursday 31st March 7.30pm

John Sheeran, who may well be known to you, is an experienced and popular art lecturer. He is much admired for the relaxed and engaging manner in which he brings the Old and Modern Masters to life and we are delighted that he has agreed to give a special talk for FramSoc. John was Curator of Dulwich Picture Gallery, London before setting up the specialist art consultancy Sheeran Lock Ltd in 1990. He has curated prestigious art exhibitions, including the official 50th Birthday Exhibition of HRH The Prince of Wales at Hampton Court Palace and the United Nations Millennium Exhibition at UN Headquarters in New York. His weekly 'Discover the Great Painters' lectures in Framlingham attract large audiences from far afield. John will be giving an illustrated talk about some of the greatest masterpieces of British art from the past 600 years. He has chosen twelve of his favourite paintings to discuss in depth. Artists include Holbein, Van Dyck, Stubbs, Turner, Millais and Paul Nash. 'I hope my talk will encourage people to go and see the original paintings', says John. 'They are all in London and it would make a terrific day out.' College students will also be invited to attend this event. John's regular lectures, Discover the Great Painters: 20th Century part 2 will be delivered every Thursday from 13th January to 17th March, 2011 at 10.30am (repeated at 7.30pm) in St Michael's Rooms, Framlingham. Please contact Amanda on ajt@framcollege.co.uk at your earliest convenience.

Non-Members £7.00

FramSoc Book Club

The College

Cath Drummond & Rachel Heard

3 Thursdays at 7.30pm: 20th Jan / 10th Feb / 24th March

Cath Drummond and Rachel Heard warmly invite you to become the inaugural members of the FramSoc Book Club. The evenings, each devoted to a separate novel, will bring together anyone interested in discussing a good read in good company. Members are welcome to sign up for all three evenings or dip in and out over the course of the term. Cath and Rachel promise that no grades will be awarded and no written coursework will be expected - the only requirement is to purchase - and preferably read - a copy of the book to be discussed! This term's titles are:

The Room by Emma Donoghue: Thursday, 20th January, 7.30pm

Digging to America by Anne Tyler: Thursday, 10th February, 7.30pm

A Spot of Bother by Mark Haddon: Thursday 24th March, 7.30pm

Numbers will be limited to 12 per evening. Please contact Cath on cedrummond@framcollege.co.uk or Rachel on reheard@framcollege.co.uk to sign up for all three books or individual titles only.

Non-Members £5.00 per evening
