

HUMPHREY OSBORN SPRINGFIELD (1898-1901)

| | |
|---------------------------|--|
| Date of Birth | 31 March 1887 |
| School Information | None |
| Career Information | None |
| Date Of Death | 5 August 1916 |
| Cause of Death | Died while saving wounded men |
| Location | Quatia, Egypt |
| Cemetery | Kantara War Memorial Cemetery, Egypt Plot A.30 |
| Rank | Second Lieutenant. Mentioned in despatches |
| Branch of Service | Warwickshire Yeomanry |

A brass plaque in the Parish Church of Fontmell Magna, Dorset is in his memory and records that he died "while saving wounded men". As well as appearing on the Fontmell Magna War Memorial, his name is also on the Alburgh War Memorial in Norfolk.

Sadly we have not yet been able to obtain a photo of his grave in Egypt.