Dear Sir or Madam,

I found this photo in my late Mother's letters & wondered if it was of interest for your archives?

I only know my Uncle Neville Frederick

Garrard is far left on the back row. He died in a Japanese P.O.W. camp in the Second World War

I guess it must have been taken in the mid 1930's? His sister is still alive & I have his wooden school box and school hat. I guess it could just be possible that someone else in the photo is alive & might recognize these boys?

Yours sincerely

Phil Hewitt

(I have the original photo, it is very small but pin sharp.)
